STATE CONVENTION EXPECTS COLONEL

May Be Chairman or Speak at Saratoga.

GRISCOM CALLS TO URGE IT

Roosevelt Admits He Is Considering Whether to Attend-Gifford Pinchot Calls by Back Door Route and His Visit Is Announced by Mr. Roosevelt-Many Visitors Turned Away.

New York, Aug. 12.-There is very little doubt that Mr. Roosevelt will be on hand for the Republican State convention at Saratoga next month. The colonel had luncheon and a conference with County Chairman Lloyd Griscom to-day, and announced afterward that he was considering the idea of attending. He did not say that he was certain of going, but it is understood that he will. Friends of the colonel in Nassau County have been after him for a long time, urging him to attend the convention as a delegate. It has been suggested frequently that Mr. Roosevelt act as temporary chairman, but this he will not discuss, because he doesn't know what he would do in case the position were offered him. It is known that Mr. Roose velt is deeply interested in the State situation in New York. He has said that on several occasions. He thinks also that in case he is present he will make a speech. The advent of Roosevelt at the convention was discussed by politiclans in town, and it was generally conceded that a blunt expression of his personal opinion at Saratoga would do a has been heard before.

Many Visitors Turned Away. The reception room of the Outlook office was not crowded to-day, although the colonel was on the job with a vengeance. He turned away a few visitors because he wanted to devote as much time as possible to the writing of his speeches for the Western trip. He even let Jacob S. Coxey, the noted hobo general, get away without seeing him. Only one Senator called. Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, dropped in on fairs declare, did much to help the inthe colonel to pay his respects. He said surgents gain a victory. that he chatted pleasantly with the colonel, but did not go into much of a discussion on politics. The contributing editor made no comment on the Senator's call, and thus it stood. As he stepped non, and such knowledge, it is declared, into the elevateor going down, Senator will mean victory, a Republican House Elkins remarked that everything is in fine shape politically in his part of the 1912.

FOND MEMORIES.

My life's growing white with the snows of December, and soon it must yield to the force of the blast; and, like an old dotard, I dream, and remember the things that occurred in the far away past. How well I can picture the house I was born in, the kitchen, the stairway, the dark, narrow hall; the old clock that rang an alarm in the mornin', the cheap wooden paddle that hung on the wall; that plain wooden paddle, that long-handled paddle, that trusty old paddle that hung on the wall! Then I was a wayward young lad and mischievous, and given to tricks that were foolish and vain; and father would say to me: "Why do you grieve us, and fill our fond hearts with a cream-colored pain? The life you are leading has long since disgraced you, and filled all our bosoms with wormwood and gall; I see very plainly I'll have to lambast you-" Then down came the paddle that hung on the wall; that cheap willow paddle, that unvarnished paddle, that three-cornered paddle that hung on the wall. Then all of our helpful and well-meaning neighbors, whose lives were too barren of pleasure and glee, wou'd pause for a time from their pastimes and labors, to hear that old paddle connecting with me. And O how they chortied and giggled and tittered, when hearing me let out an agonized bawl! 'Twas little they recked that my life was embittered by that wooden paddle that hung on the wall; that dingbusted paddle, that doggasted paddle, that jim-twisted paddle that hung on the wall. Senator Aldrich announced his intended retirement months ago, but there whole lot toward stirring things up in was a feeling that he might run again great style. The cry for harmony might if pressed to do so. This is what the be heard then more distinctly than it West thought, according to information brought to Beverly. And on that fact the West pondered much, not to the advantage of the Republicans.

The Senator, however, has again unqualifiedly relterated his determination. Ballinger has always declared that he would not retire. But he has been persuaded, so the story goes, to sacrifice himself for the good of the party. Speaker Cannon, by his speeches in ments of the present week. This condition, contrasted with that of five years ago, when the organization had a bank balance of nearly $1,000,000, is creating more discussion than the quarrel between President Lewis and Walker, for the delegates declare that with 85,000 men idle and the treasury bankrupt, there seems nothing in store for them but to return to work on the terms offered by the operators. Lewis and his supporters believe the financial condition will bring the Illinois miners to respect the agreement, made by the executive board. with the operators, though there is much criticism of his administration because of what is believed to be the needless expenditure of money. Since the strike was inaugurated in April, the executive board has ordered the payment of benefits to strikers aggregating $65,000 a week, and these on August 8 totaled $674,000. The expenses of the organization the same time, including the payment of organizers, aggregated $185,338, leaving the treasury bare on the day the convention assembled, and with nothing to depend upon except the 25 cent per week assessment which each miner at work is expected to pay.

Lewis has been placed on the defensive by this condition, but says every cent paid out was ordered by the executive board, and that the organization has nothing to fear if Illinois miners will obey the board's orders and return to

RILEY NOT IMPROVING.

Famous Hoosier Poet's Condition Alarms His Friends.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 12.-James Whitcomb Riley, the famous Hoosier poet and humorist, who began life as a sign writer, is critically ill at his home here. He was able to sit up only a few minutes to-day. Mr. Riley, who is said to be suffering from a mild form of paralysis, has not been able to leave his home for six weeks, but his condition had not been regarded as critical until recently. Only members of his family are permitted to see him.

During the last three or four years the poet's friends have noticed that he seemed to fail rapidly. He appeared but little among them, and has written only a few poems during that time. He seemed to grow better a week ago, but has gone back since then and is only able to sit up in bed a few minutes at a time. His family are reluctant in talking about his illness. They cling to the hope that his present attack is temporary and that he will regain his health by careful nursing.
